Long-rang planning is critical to school improvement.

Traditional strategic planning models can leave you exhausted and directionless. School Perceptions has developed a unique and dynamic approach to strategic and long-range planning so that you can spend more time planning and less time gathering data.

Each program is customized to fit your unique situation. In many areas we can develop comparison data to help you understand how your district compares to similar districts.

Topics:

- Improving Student Achievement
- Facilities
- Technology
- Communications
- School climate

Benefits:

- Evaluate current policies and practices
- Reflect on goals and vision
- Identify areas of consensus
- Align board and administrators
- Establish district priorities, goals and vision
- Communicate focused priorities, goals and a shared vision
